Good Shepherd Parish Religious Education

Dear Parents,

We have had a wonderful beginning of the year in PRE!

We have been pleased to welcome new students from the Hispanic Community as well as new students to the Atrium this year.

Special welcome to: Tiffany, Omar, and Kevin Garcia-Bakazar, Hartleigh McMurtry, Adrian Norman, Gracie Sparacio, Johnathan Bustamate, Yoselin Naguez, Jasmin Ibarra, and Jamie, Johnny and Jason Resendiz.

This Thanksgiving I am so grateful for all who are instrumental in our Parish Religious Education program.

I am grateful for our students who demonstrate an eagerness to learn about our Faith.

I am grateful for our Catechists, Joannie Lewis and Kathy Bennett, who give of themselves faithfully to assist you in handing on the Faith to your children.

I am grateful to our Parents who are so diligent in making sure your children are here on Sunday mornings.

May you all have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Sincerely in Christ,

Patty Davidson

Important Announcement

Advent begins December 3rd. As we await the celebration of Our Savior's Birth, we will be praying, sacrificing, and serving others. For our special Advent service project, we will provide items for baby care to be presented to Life Choices.

There will be a collection tub in the hallway.

We Have A Bishop Elect!

Pope Francis has named Father J. Mark Spalding, a priest of the Archdiocese of Louisville, to be the 12th Bishop of Nashville. The appointment was publicized at noon in Rome, 5 a.m. central time, on Tuesday November 21, 2017.

Bishop-elect Spalding will be ordained a bishop and installed as the Bishop of Nashville on February 2, 2018 at Sagrado Corazon at the Catholic Pastoral Center on McGavock Pike.

Bishop-elect Spalding, 52, a native of Fredericktown, KY and a member of a large extended family with roots dating to the earliest days of Catholic life west of the Appalachian Mountains, was ordained to the priesthood on August 3, 1991 at the St. Joseph Proto-Cathedral in Bardstown, KY. He is a graduate of Bethlehem High School in Bardstown, KY, and St. Meinrad Seminary in St. Meinrad, Indiana. He received a master of religious studies and a licentiate in canon law from American University in Louvain, Belgium.

He is currently pastor of Holy Trinity Parish and Holy Name Parish in Louisville. He has also served as a vicar general for the archdiocese since 2011. He has served a number of other assignments including associate pastor at St. Joseph and chaplain at Bethlehem High School in Bardstown, associate pastor at St. Augustine in Lebanon, KY, associate pastor at St. Margaret Mary in Louisville, pastor of Immaculate Conception in LaGrange, KY. He has served as a judge, judicial vicar, and director of the tribunal for the archdiocese.
